

KEYSTONE ANKENY

Keystone Church of Ankeny was looking for its first permanent facility after several years of using temporary spaces for its worship services. JCorp worked with the client to develop a program that meets their needs within a former pharmacy building. The final building contains a 500-seat auditorium, office spaces, classrooms, offices, and a large foyer, repurposing a previously monotonous building into a dynamic home for the congregation in a very cost-effective manner.